BRITISH AT COLENZO.

General Buller Says Boers Have Withdrawn Troops North of Tugela.

THINKS THEY ARE RETREATING.

The Latest Information From Lord Roberts Shows He Is About Half Way Between Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

London, Feb. 20.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from General Buller, dated Blows Farm, Feb. 20: "The Fusilier brigade Monday took Hlangwana hill, the right of the enemy's position, and commanding Colenso, the rest of the force advancing toward the Tugela. Tuesday morning the enemy has withdrawn all the troops north of the Tugela and had practically evacuated Colenso. General Buller occupied Colenso after a very slight resistance by a weak rear guard and we hold the line of the Tugela on the south side from Colenso to Eagle's Nest. The enemy seems to be in full retreat and apparently are only holding the position they occupy across the Colenso-Ladysmith railway, where it is close to the angle of the Tugela with a weak rear guard. Buller's advance guard is crossing at Colenso. Our casualties, for two days, have, I hope, been few."

Unofficially, it is rumored that General Buller has brought General Cronje to a standstill, and has engaged him, and it is added the war office is only awaiting the result of the battle. This, however, though plausible, may be premature. In any case, the confident hope that General Cronje has been cut off from Bloemfontein continues to prevail in London, especially in view of detailed dispatches saying that the Free Staters, when they saw the extent of the British forces, were in favor of surrendering.

The Westminster Gazette's military critic says he believes the Boers have started northward in Natal, and will raise the siege of Ladysmith and reinforce General Cronje. But this must be regarded as rather optimistic, at any rate until General Buller has developed the Boers' second line of defense, which on every attempt to reach Ladysmith has proved impregnable.

Old Soldiers Called Into Service.
London, Feb. 20.—The queen, through her private secretary, Sir Arthur John Bigge, has sent the following letter to the commander-in-chief of the forces, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley: "As so large a proportion of the army is now in South Africa, the queen fully realizes that necessary measures must be adopted for home defense. Her majesty is advised that it would be possible to devise for a year an efficient force from her old soldiers who have already served as officers, noncommissioned officers or privates, and confident in their devotion to the country and loyalty to her throne, the queen appeals to them to serve her once more in place of those who, for a time, side by side with the peoples of her colonies, are nobly resisting the invasion of her South African possessions. Her majesty has signified her pleasure that these battalions shall be designated the Royal Reserve battalions of her army."

British Casualties.
London, Feb. 20.—The war office announces the following casualties among officers during the relief of Kimberley: Killed, Lieutenant A. B. Hesketh, Sixteenth Lancers; Lieutenant the Hon. W. McClintock Bunbury, Second Dragoons; wounded, Wounded, Captain E. R. Gordon and Lieutenant D. F. Brasse, Ninth Lancers; Captain C. B. Tuson, Sixteenth Lancers; Lieutenants R. I. Fordyce and W. Long, Second Dragoons.

Message From Roberts.
London, Feb. 20.—The war office has issued a dispatch from Lord Roberts, the main importance of which is the fact that it is dated Paardeberg, Monday. Paardeberg is 30 miles east of Jacobsdal. The dispatch announces that the railroad to Kimberley is open and that General Methuen will proceed there with reinforcements forthwith, and that large supplies will be forwarded to the town.

Sees Her Warriors.
London, Feb. 20.—The queen, prior to leaving Osborne House, on her return to Windsor, inspected the Fourth battalion of the Lincolnshire militia. Her majesty acknowledged with a gracious smile the good news that had been received from the seat of war. Another account says the queen specified the news came from Ladysmith.

Cecil Rhodes Feels Well.
Kimberley, Feb. 20.—The country is all free around Kimberley. The Boers have evacuated Dronfeld, Saltpan, Spytefontein and Scholtzneck. One of their 12-pounders, with ammunition, was captured, as was also their laager at Dronfeld, which was abandoned on Friday night. Cecil Rhodes is in excellent spirits.

Buller's Casualties.
London, Feb. 20.—The casualties among General Buller's forces in the fighting at Hussar hill, Monte Christo hill and other places, from Feb. 15 to Feb. 18, were: Killed, Captain T. H. Burney and 13 men; wounded, 6 officers and 154 men.

TRIAL OF FILIPINO.
The Guerrilla Insurgents May Be Treated as Bandits.

Manilla, Feb. 20.—A military commission meets at Calamba to try a Filipino member of the guerrilla band which attacked a squad of Americans Feb. 2, killing a corporal. The case is important as foreshadowing the policy of treating guerrillas as bandits. It is supposed that one reason which has hitherto deterred the American authorities from adopting this policy is that the insurgents have more than 50 American prisoners and may retaliate, although a few of them were captured while fighting.

New Incorporations.
Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—The Schuster company, Cleveland, capital stock $50,000; the Hudepohl Brewing company, Cincinnati, capital stock $150,000; the Tecumseh club, Medway; the Alta Transit company, Mentor Special district, capital stock $50,000; the Ash-tabula Manufacturing company, Ash-tabula, increase of capital stock from $20,000 to $40,000; the Zehner Brothers Packing company, Bellevue, increase of capital stock from $50,000 to $75,000; the B. P. Sexton company, Sandusky, increase of capital stock from $10,000 to $50,000; Wolfe Brothers Annex Shoe company, Columbus, capital stock $101,000.

Aimed at Paper Trust.
Washington, Feb. 20.—Representative Richardson (Tenn.) introduced in the house a resolution aimed at the paper trust, on the lines of his resolution against the sugar trust. It prohibits the transportation of woodpulp and printing paper suitable for the printing of newspapers, periodicals or books after six months, until the interstate commerce commission are satisfied that such articles have not yielded to the manufacturers thereof a profit of more than 4 per cent.

To Set the Date.
Washington, Feb. 20.—Representative Hepburn, chairman of the committee on interstate commerce, after his failure to secure unanimous agreement in the house for taking up the Nicaraguan canal bill, introduced a resolution for the consideration of the bill on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 5 and 6. The resolution provides that at 5 o'clock on the latter day the previous question shall be considered as ordered. The resolution went to the committee on rules.

Samples Not Furnished.
Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—The supreme court decided against State Food Commissioner Blackburn in the case of the State ex rel. Reynolds, an inspector, against the Capital City Dairy company. The company refused the demand of the inspector for a sample of their product for examination. The decision seems to be in effect that the commissioner can not compel the furnishing of samples.

Gift to Oberlin College.
Oberlin, O., Feb. 20.—President Barrows announced a gift of $40,000 for Oberlin college from the estate of William P. Osborne of Pittsburg, who died in Florida a few weeks ago. Mr. Osborne was much interested in Oberlin college, and his will provides that the sum mentioned should be given for the endowment of the president's chair.

Train For Kimberley.
Cape Town, Feb. 20.—Repairs to the railway have sufficiently advanced to enable the dispatch of the first train to Kimberley laden with coal. After that the military requirements will be the first consideration; second, foodstuffs and the passengers, which latter train it is anticipated will start on Wednesday or Thursday.

Attempted Suicide.
Troy, O., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Walter Crook, widow of the well known Captain Crook, and sister-in-law of General Crook, the famous Indian fighter, attempted suicide at Tadmor, a village south of Troy, by shooting herself in the forehead. She was worried over protracted litigation.

Doctors Bound Over.
Dayton, O., Feb. 20.—Drs. Calvin Pollock and T. R. Baldrige, charged with attempting to perform a criminal operation on Miss Harriet Ros-nagle, who died three weeks ago, have been bound over to the grand jury

FIVE MEN FOR A TRAIN

The House Passes a Bill of Interest to the Railroad People.

RELIEF FOR THE LAUDERBAUGHS

The Senate Without a Dissenting Vote Appropriates Money For the Support of the Murdered Guard's Family.

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—Senator Wilhelm of Stark thinks there should be some check put upon teachers who leave their schools as soon as they get places where the remuneration is greater, leaving the boards of education without teachers to take their places. To stop this he introduced a bill to require teachers to give small bonds that they will fill their part in the contracts, the bond to run from $100 to $200.

Senator Dodge's highway commission bill was reported back from the committee on roads and highways with recommendation for passage.

A message from Governor Nash appointed Samuel Well of Mahoning county and George E. Baldwin of Stark county to succeed George D. Gessaman and Dr. Gardiner as trustees of the Cleveland State hospital. The appointments were confirmed by the senate without reference.

The senate passed Senator Brorein's bill to pay indemnity to landowners for flooding by water from the Mercer reservoir. The total claims amounted to several hundred dollars.

Senator Long's bill to authorize county commissioners to aid county fair associations to the extent of $800 per annum was passed.

The bill for the relief of the family of Guard Lauderbaugh, who was killed by convicts, was passed by the senate without opposition. It gives to the widow $2,000 and to each of the four children $500.

When the McCordy bill, repealing an act under which Troy has issued bonds for securing the location of industries and other purposes, was reached on third reading, it having been taken from the hands of Senator Long as a committee by the senate, Senator Brorein moved to postpone action for a day, when Senator Long would be here. It was lost. Senator Wightman stating that the bill would be useless if not passed at once. Senator Cohen tried to have action postponed until afternoon, but it failed. The bill was then passed by a vote of 19 to 4. Senator Patterson made some direct charges against Senator Long. He said he had been reliably informed before he came to the senate that Senator Long would resort to tricky methods to kill a bill, and would not hesitate to pocket a bill to do it. It is expected that Senator Long will call the senator down when he returns. Democratic senators had telegrams from Senator Long saying he was sick and confined to his bed.

Among the bills introduced in the senate were: Making maximum penalty for disturbing a public meeting $100 fine and 25 days; providing for a court of conciliation in each county.

Both branches adopted a resolution to adjourn from Wednesday to Monday on account of Washington's birthday.

House Proceedings.
The house passed the McClinchy bill, fixing a train crew at five men, a conductor, a brakeman, a flagman, an engineer and a fireman, and whenever more than 35 cars are put into a freight train the bill would require the company to put on one more brakeman. The bill was amended before being put to vote by Mr. Griffin of Lucas, so as to provide that half the penalty for violation shall go to the person giving the information as to its violation. The bill will have to pass the senate before it becomes a law.

Mr. Rothe's house bill passed the house. This bill is directed against the usury of chattel loan mortgage companies in cities. Such companies are to be required to procure a license, records kept open, and interest is limited to 18 per cent a year, clear.

The Davis house bill, providing for more secure guarding of machinery, so as to prevent accidents to employees, passed the house.

House bill by Mr. Love, providing for called meetings of the state board of health by the president, passed the house.

At the afternoon session the Cox ripper bill came up with other bills for second reading, and on request of Representative Longworth, one of the two Cox Republican members of the house, the bill was referred to the committee on municipal affairs.

Among the bills introduced in the house were: Authorizing village councils to increase the tax on bicycles and vehicles; providing that circuit courts can not reverse a judgment of a lower court but once upon the weight of the testimony against the same party; providing that foreign guardians of residents of Ohio shall give the same security as home guardians; providing that before a life insurance company can re-insure its business or re-incorporate or consolidate with another, it must submit its plans for approval to the governor, attorney general and insurance superintendent.

THE EVIDENCE
In the Possession of Macrum to Substantiate His Charges.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Charles E. Macrum, late consul at Pretoria, furnishes proof of his charge that United States official mail was opened by the British censor.

Mr. Macrum has several envelopes, each bearing the British sticker applied to the envelope after it had been opened by the censor. He has one envelope which contained mail matter from consul General Stowe at Cape Town. It is the regulation blue of the consular service. It bears upon its face the legend "U. S. Consular Service," and a stamp, "mail suspended." On the reverse side is the United States government seal impressed upon the red sealing wax of the consular service.

The British sticker resealing the letter after it had been opened, bears the potential initials "V. R.," the initials of the clerk who opened the letter, the name of the place where it was opened. This letter was mailed at Cape Town, Oct. 4, by Consul General Stowe. It was held there one month apparently, for the next postmark is that of Durban, dated Nov. 4. From Durban it was sent to Pretoria and reached Mr. Macrum in its mutilated form.

The circulars to consuls issued by the department, not in themselves important, but nevertheless "official mail," never reached Macrum. They were confiscated without apology or explanation by the British censor. As for Mr. Macrum's personal mail, he never heard of it. The British authorities are familiar with the American consular code.

On Nov. 8 Mr. Macrum sent a cablegram in code to the state department, urgently requiring that he be permitted to come home. Usually cablegrams, because of the difference in time between South Africa and this country, consume two days in transmission; that is to say, the cablegram sent by Mr. Macrum on Nov. 8 would normally have been received by the state department on Nov. 10. But on Nov. 9, before the cablegram was received by the state department certainly, and before it was sent from South Africa probably, the British papers in Natal, hundreds of miles away, announced in impressive type that Mr. Macrum, the American consul at Pretoria, desired to be permitted to go home.

Date Not Fixed.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Mr. Hepburn attempted to secure an agreement to take up the Nicaraguan canal bill. He asked unanimous consent that it be taken up in two weeks. Mr. Richards asked if there was anything in the bill which recognized the exercise of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. "There is not," replied Mr. Hepburn, "the bill provides for absolute ownership." Mr. Cannon (Ills.), chairman of the appropriations committee, said he was not prepared to agree at this time to the consideration of the bill. "There is no objection on this side," observed Mr. Richardson, but Mr. Cannon still dissented. The house then went into committee of the whole, and Mr. Newlands (Nev.), a member of the ways and means committee, took the floor in opposition to the Porto Rican bill.

Carnegie's Arrival Awaited.

Pittsburg, Feb. 20.—All persons interested in the Frick-Carnegie equity suit are now awaiting anxiously the arrival in the city of the principal defendant, Mr. Andrew Carnegie, who is now on his way north from Florida. He is not expected, however, until Thursday, as it is said before coming here, he will have a conference either in New York or Washington with President Schwab, who is still in the east. Mr. Carnegie's presence in Pittsburg will add greatly to the interest in the legal battle, and immediate action from the defense side of the question is expected.

Bard Takes His Seat.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Mr. Perkins at the opening of the senate presented the credentials of Thomas R. Bard as senator from California for the term of six years, beginning on March 4, 1899. The credentials were filed. Mr. Kennedy (Del.) was recognized to deliver a speech on the Philippine question. He took strong ground against the retention of the Philippines, and argued that the Filipinos should be given their independence, under the protection of the United States.

CLARK'S BANK RECORD

Exhibited to the Investigating Committee at Washington.

TRANSFER OF MONEY TO MR. DAY.

The Senator Says He Paid Little Attention to Stories About Bribes as He Was Convinced the Reports Were Untrue.

Washington, Feb. 20.—When the senate committee on elections resumed its sitting the cross-examination of Senator Clark was continued by Mr. Campbell.

The first chiefly related to the memorandum of expenses supplied by the senator. He said he had prepared this statement from the books of his bank. He had not only destroyed his checks, but also the check stubs, but was confident that the showing made was correct. He had destroyed the checks in this instance, as he was in the habit of doing about every six months, and not because he felt there was any especial reason for getting rid of them at this time.

In reply to questions Mr. Clark said so far as he knew the committee acting in his behalf in the campaign had not made any statement of expenditures, as required by the Montana election law. He did not make any; he had not considered himself a candidate when the members of the legislature were elected. Money supplied by him later was for the purpose of paying expenses already incurred, and not as a senatorial candidate.

"Where did you get the $20,000 he paid during the session of the legislature?"

"I presume he checked on his own account, but I don't know."

"What explanation did Mr. Wellcome make when he made his demand upon you for $15,000?"

"He said, as well as I remembered, that he had drawn upon his own account. He will, however, be able to tell you about that. I required no detailed statement from him, feeling confident the expenditure was made in a legitimate way."

Asked about the reports that his son had bought a large amount of property from State Senator Warren, Mr. Clark said he had made no inquiry of him, because he was thoroughly convinced that the reports were untrue. "I asked neither him nor Wellcome nor Bickford nor Davidson nor Steele, nor any of these men, in regard to any of the reports of bribery, because I was sure they were absolutely false," he said. "The charges were made by men in whom I had no confidence, and they went in one ear and out of the other." His son was, he said, in the habit of conducting his own business affairs without consulting him, and as far as the charges of bribery in connection with the transaction, he did not believe them; hence, he had made no inquiry, and did not know that $7,000 paid for this property had come out of any of the money furnished by him in connection with the campaign.

Referring to one of Dr. Ector's letters concerning Representative Woods, Mr. Clark said he understood that Mr. Woods was a good natured man and liable to be influenced by those who saw him first. He did not believe he was seeking or would take a bribe. He believed, however, that Dr. Ector himself was intimating that he wanted pecuniary remuneration for himself. He said, however, that he had merely glanced the letter over and passed it to Mr. Bickford. This latter remark aroused the interest of Senator Hoar, who asked a number of questions showing incredulity in the matter, but Mr. Clark insisted that he did not know Mr. Ector, and that he had given very little attention to the letter, notwithstanding it related to the vote of a member of the legislature.

Mr. Clark also testified concerning the loan of $25,000 made by him to the Ross Dyer Mercantile company, but said so far as he knew this firm had no connection with State Senator Hanna.

At this juncture Mr. Campbell asked Mr. Clark to submit his account books, showing his expenditures since the beginning of the campaign in Montana.

Mr. Faulkner objected. He said Mr. Clark had made a showing of all of his political expenditures, and he was not bound to expose his personal and business expenditures.

The question was raised in connection with a correction made by Mr. Clark of his testimony concerning the date of his presentation of $5,000 to State Representative Day. He said that instead of doing this on Feb. 1, he had done it on March 1. The prosecution contended that if one mistake had been made others were likely

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY.—Rain in eastern, rain or snow and colder in central and western portions to-day; Thursday, fair, southeasterly, shifting to northerly and northwesterly winds.

The wages of one hundred and seventy thousand workers in this country have been raised since the first of December. All the whining in the world cannot weaken that colossal fact.—Judge.

"And over three hundred thousand workers have been thrown out of employment in the same time by the formation of trusts," replies the Paris Gazette.

The Public Ledger echoing the cry of a lot of other Republican papers asks why an inquest was not held upon Gov. Goebel's remains. It is not the rule, as the editor of the Ledger well knows, to hold inquests on any one's remains when it is known what caused that one's death. Mr. Goebel was shot down almost at midday, in front of the Capitol building and died of his wounds. It is known that his death was the result of a pistol or rifle shot, and that that shot was fired by some person unknown.

All reports at that time agreed that the shots came from cowardly assassins concealed in the Executive building, and that this building was occupied by Republican State officials, and filled with a crowd of mountain Republicans at the time. Neither is it denied that the Taylor militia in a few minutes after the shots were fired took possession of this building and for days afterwards permitted no civil officer of Frankfort or Franklin County to enter the building to search for clues. If Republicans were so anxious for the assassin to be captured why did they drive back the civil officers and thus give the murderer or murderers ample time to make good their escape? A man who aids a murderer to escape, or knowingly attempts to conceal the murderer or shield him from the law becomes a party to the crime.

Now Republicans are trying to relieve their party of the odium resulting from their State officials interfering with the work of the officers of the law by saying that the shots were not fired from the Executive building. Will they please explain then why Mr. Taylor's militia were rushed directly to this building when Goebel was shot down? That is a most significant fact in connection with this infamous crime. They seem to have known just where they were needed and just what was expected of them. That's the way it looks to a person at this distance.

But it is easy to see the purpose of the Republicans in raising the cry they do at this time. They simply hope to take the attention of the public from the real facts in the case. Murder will out, and Republican editors may rest assured this infamous crime will be sifted to the bottom.

The Richest Man in the World.

[New York World.]

Andrew Carnegie, in a speech made at the Lotos Club a fortnight ago, referred to John D. Rockefeller as "the richest man in the world."

Three years ago one of the counsel of the Standard Oil Company said, in the course of legal proceedings at Philadelphia, that Mr. Rockefeller was entitled, on his holding of stock, to two-fifths of the dividends of $30,000,000 declared for that year. This would have made Mr. Rockefeller's income $12,000,000.

The Standard Oil Company has recently declared a 20 per cent. dividend for the first quarter of this year, or at the rate of $80,000,000 a year. Mr. Rockefeller's share of this—his income from this source alone—would be $32,000,000. In Mr. Frick's sworn statement of the affairs of the Carnegie Steel Company, a synopsis of which was printed in the World, he says that Mr. Carnegie estimated the net profits for 1900 at $40,000,000, and Mr. Frick estimated them at $42,500,000. As Mr. Carnegie owns 53-100ths of the concern, his profits for the year would be $24,500,000.

Both these men, of course, have other property, but Mr. Carnegie evidently spoke with knowledge in describing Mr. Rockefeller as "the richest man in the world."

Cigarette Output Reduced.

[New York Telegram to the Philadelphia Ledger.]

In view of the injurious effects of the cigarette habit it is gratifying to learn that in the Second and Third Internal Revenue districts of this city the output of paper cigarettes last month was 43,405,970 less than in January, 1899. Yet the use of tobacco in other forms increased. There was a gain of 12,917,586 in the production of cigars and of 117,510 in the production of all-tobacco cigarettes.

ASTOUNDING REVELATION

Is Mr. Frick's Statement of the Profits of the Carnegie Company—Rev. Newton on Trusts.

NEW YORK, February 19.—At the first of the series of "conferences on trusts" which are to be held during the evenings of this week in Cooper Union, Rev. Dr. Heber Newton in a paper read last night made an attack upon the monopolies and trusts of the present day, directing his remarks more particularly at the Carnegie Company and the Standard Oil Company, which he selected as the best, or worst, examples of the power of accumulated capital.

Dr. Newton said that unless labor can organize on the same gigantic scale as trusts, it will be more at the mercy of capital than ever. Hosts of men will be thrown out of employment. The market being in the control of few hands prices can be forced up, at least temporarily. Taxation beyond the dreams of the past can be laid by private hands upon the whole community—the entire nation.

"The enormous power of aggregate capital," he said, "can corrupt and debauch our City Councils, our Legislatures and our Congress."

"What a revelation of the spirit of our modern corporation has been given within the last few days in the astounding statement of the profits of the Carnegie Company last year and for the present year. A company expecting to make from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 in the current year with a capital of $25,000,000—to what extent water we do not know—asking the State to tax the whole nation under the guise of a tariff that it may be able to increase the wages of its workmen."

"No more revolting story is told in the history of the industrial world than the tale of the Standard Oil trust."

DELAYED A FEW DAYS.

Story From Paris That a Bourbon Lady Saved Goebel's Life the Friday Before He Was Shot.

[Paris Gazette.]

It is claimed that there was a plot to assassinate Senator Goebel on Friday before the Tuesday when the deed was done, but that the assassins were thwarted by a young lady of this city. According to the rumor, Senator Goebel was to have been shot as he passed down the Capitol grounds. The assassins were in position, with the guns ready, and had planned to make good their escape undetected. It so happened that the Paris lady came out of the Capitol building just as Senator Goebel did. He spoke to her, and asked the privilege of walking with her to the Capitol Hotel. She assented, and they passed down the walk and along the streets together. The assassins feared that the young lady would be killed or seriously wounded if they attempted to shoot Senator Goebel while walking with her. On her account they refrained and postponed the killing to another date. When Senator Goebel and the young lady arrived at the Capitol Hotel, she remarked: "Well, I brought you through safely, and I bid you good day." He thanked her, lifted his hat and walked away. The Gazette is unable to state how it was ever learned that assassination was intended on that day, but it gives the rumor as it heard it upon the streets of Paris.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

The Progressive Euchre Given by Miss Hunt a Delightful Affair.

The progressive euchre given by Miss Katie Hunt Tuesday was a most delightful affair. Mrs. Mary T. Cox was awarded first prize, Mrs. Foxworthy the second and the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. John T. Wilson.

Miss Fannie Frazee delightfully entertained a party of her friends Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. D. Dye, entertains to-morrow afternoon with progressive euchre.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

For the Farmer.

Exchange: "Cows kept clean and self respecting are pretty sure to be in good physical condition to give a better yield of milk and cream. Sanitary stables are thus more essential in winter than in summer. Most of men think only of protecting the animals from the cold; but disease is a prime factor in the animal's winter life. If we cannot give the animal the best there is, how can we expect to receive the best in return? It is a matter of give and take, and nature makes few allowances for mistakes or ignorance."

The saddle horse is becoming more popular throughout the country every day. In Kentucky and Missouri the breeding of the saddle horse under the rules of the National Saddle Horse Breeders' Association, has reached a scientific stage, says the Rider and Driver, and the products have been more than satisfactory as to quality, manner, style and conformation.

ABBLE GRAY, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Barbour, died Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, aged about eleven months. The little one had been ill some time, from teething troubles. The sincere sympathy of a host of friends goes out to the parents in their grief. The funeral will take place Thursday at 2 p. m. at the residence on West Front street, Rev. Dr. Barbour officiating.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The House and Senate Separately and in Joint Session Ratify the Action as to Governorship.

At Tuesday's session of the House, ninety-four members answered the roll call. Rev. Lew Wallace offered prayer. Among the new bills presented were the following:

An act to regulate the sale of kerosene and coal oil and to prevent a monopoly in these commodities.

An act authorizing the establishment of a national military park at Perryville.

An act regarding the killing of cattle by railway trains.

An act providing further punishment for concealing or selling mortgaged personal property.

An act regulating practice in civil cases.

An act to prevent the sale of intoxicants through express companies.

An act continuing the Kentucky State Dental Association.

An act to protect the people from a political judiciary by prohibiting any Judge from speaking, publishing or acting on behalf of any candidate for office.

An act regulating private corporations.

An act relating to idiots and lunatics.

An act to prevent injury to free roads by heavy hauling at certain seasons.

An act to prevent establishment of trusts and pools.

Stith, of Meade, offered a resolution similar to the Allen "ratification" resolution declaring Goebel and Beckham to have been elected. The yeas and nays were demanded upon the motion. The vote stood 55 to 40. The Republicans refused to vote at first, but answered the second roll call.

Mr. Finn moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was adopted, and that the motion to reconsider lie on the table.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed by a vote of 58 to 38.

The Senate met at 10:30 a. m. Rev. W. A. Taliaferro offered prayer. The Republicans were not present.

Senator Puryear offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate the feasibility of appointing or electing a public printer and providing a State printing establishment to provide school books, etc.

Senator Puryear offered a bill to prohibit Sunday excursions.

Senator Voiers offered a bill to create the office of Bank and Trust Company Examiner.

At this juncture President Carter left the chair and turned the gavel over to McConnell.

Senator Farris moved that the vote by which the journal was adopted be reconsidered and that the journal be approved by a yeas and nays vote. The vote stood nineteen to one in favor of the motion. Triplett voted nay.

The concurrent House resolution directing that the capital be draped in crepe in respect to the memory of Senator Goebel was adopted.

At a joint session at 3 o'clock, by a vote of 74 to 2, the previous action of the Legislature as to the Governorship and Lieutenant Governorship was ratified.

The Republican Senators held a short session when the regular session adjourned. No minister was present and Senator Cox offered prayer. No business was transacted, as they had no quorum.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. ### A MAN'S MISFORTUNES.

They Never Come Singly. Is An Old Saying. It Proved True in Dick Secrest's Case.

It has been said that misfortune never comes single handed, and it has surely been verified in Uncle Dick Secrest's case at Concord.

His wife and two of his sons have been sick nearly all winter with a low type of fever.

Another son was injured on the railroad by a steel rail falling on him, and Sunday morning at 5 o'clock the climax was reached when Uncle Dick's house and almost everything in it was destroyed by fire.

One son was still so ill that he had to be carried out of the burning building and into a neighbor's house.

There was no insurance, consequently the loss will be a heavy one.

The fire originated in the kitchen after the fire had been lighted to prepare breakfast, but was under such headway when discovered that it was impossible to save the building and but little of its contents.

As You Sow, So Shall You Reap.

The flues for the new battery of boilers, building at Portsmouth, for the steamer City of Pittsburgh have arrived, and it is believed now that she will be ready for business by the 1st of March.

Supervising Inspector General James A. Dumont has informed United States Inspectors of Steam Vessels of the adoption by the Board of Supervisors the following rule relating to the use of searchlights on the river. The rule reads: "Masters, mates and pilots of all vessels are required to use due caution in the use of their searchlights, so as not to throw the rays of the light into the pilot house of passing steamers."

BAYONET RULE.

"It is Worse Than Any Law Ever Enacted by Any People in Any State."

Bradley Has Resorted to It For Years, and Taylor Would Follow in His Steps.

In reading over the proceedings of the meetings of Republican clubs in other States when celebrating Lincoln's birthday, some of them passed resolutions endorsing usurper Taylor, while some others jumped on the Goebel law.

The Republican clubs of Ohio met in Cincinnati, patted Taylor on the back for what he has done and told him to never give up. Now what did the Republicans of the Ohio State Senate do last Friday? They passed under the party lash a bill known as the "Cox Ripper bill." This bill takes the power out of the hands of the people to say who shall be the B. C. of A. of Cincinnati and places it in the hands of Governor Nash to appoint five Republicans. This bill places Cox back on the throne where he can again pull that city. If this bill passes the House it will be more infamous than the Republicans claim the Goebel law is. The Ripper bill disfranchises all the Democrats and independent voters of the city in saying who shall be at the head of city affairs. Every one is allowed a vote under the Goebel law, and his vote honestly counted. The Ohio Ripper bill sounds too much like this: Let President McKinley appoint the Governors of the different States; the Governors appoint Judges of Court of Appeals, Circuit Judges and County Judges; County Judges appoint the minor offices. This I think would suit the Republicans; would save them trouble and time of getting together a large campaign fund and occasionally letting a Democrat step in for a piece of pie.

This would suit the big corporations and trusts, when the time comes to oppress the common people (and it is sure to come), to have Governors in the States like Bradley and Taylor to call out troops to keep the common people from attaining their rights. This is the reason why Senator Depew, one of the daddies of trusts, is blowing so long and loud on the Goebel law. I want to say the common people, be they white or black, Democrat or Republican, that in the assassination of Governor Goebel we have lost our best friend. If permitted to live he would have fought our battles, both in State and Nation.

The first trial of the Goebel law we had in our district when Pugh and Williams made the race. Pugh won by nine votes. Mr. Pugh got the seat. The only chance I could see then for the Republicans to complain was the law made the race too close for comfort, and prevented the State of Lewis from bringing in late returns. It is an undisputed fact at one time the Republican party stole the Presidency, stole our State in '96, and there is hardly an office in the gift of the people somewhere in our county they haven't stolen. See what the present Congress has done; thrown out three Democrats already and still grinding. Two had majorities of 1,200 to 1,500, one 6,000. They say that is all right, but to speak of contesting Taylor's seat with 2,000 majority obtained under bayonet rule and they hollow "steel." I think upon W. O. Bradley's shoulders should rest part of the blame for the present state of affairs. When I was a boy at school in Lancaster after the war was over, he had Federal troops at the poles every year as long as he could get them. I told some voters who wanted to see the books (I think voted for Bradley) that if Bradley was elected our State would be under a military government. The Democrats have been late to face with soldiers in the Legislature and at the polls. It is this intimidation that all loyal Democrats are tired of and intend to stop. This is the foundation for the contest for Taylor's seat. Bayonet rule is worse than any law that was ever enacted by any people in any State.

Bradley, Taylor & Co. have tramped under foot the emblem of this grand old Commonwealth and would replace it with the mountain highwaymen with Winchester in hand on one side. The other side, honest men carrying away the dead body of our beloved Goebel. Inscribed below: "Powder and ball is king." We say never.

J. F. WALTON.

THE FENCE THAT FENCES

Is the fence that has been sought for many years. People who needed fences have been looking for it. People who make fences have been trying to solve the problem. There has been a gradual evolution from the rail fence and rock wall in which every form of wood and metal and their combinations have been tried and found wanting in some essential feature until made of galvanized woven steel wire, was produced. The strength and durability of this fence, together with its comparatively LOW COST, combines to give it a wonderful popularity. We are sole agents in this locality, and would like to have those interested call and inspect the fence and get our prices.
